DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 8/25/04 have been fully considered. However, the examiner contended that at least the particulars of the Nilsson reference still read on applicant's claim limitations. Thus, the applicant's representative agreed to add claim language that help further distinguish from the referenced prior art, to show that the invention was for communicating with a mobile device using voice commands that are simple but starts a process which utilizes a larger vocabulary that brings about interactive command applications with a remote computer and its peripheral devices. This language is added to the independent claims to put the application in condition for allowance.

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Robert Maier on 1/6/05. The application has been amended as follows:

IN THE CLAIMS

- Claim 1, line 14, “therefrom.” has been changed to—therefrom, wherein computer control signals provide instructions for operation of said computer or at least one of its attached peripheral devices.--.
- Claim 7, line 10, “module.” has been changed to—module, wherein said digital data signals provide instructions for a remote computer and its peripheral devices.--.
- Claim 16, line 12, “operating said computer in response to” has been changed to—operating said computer or one of its peripheral devices in response to--.
- Claim 17, line 12, “operating said computer in response to” has been changed to—operating said computer or one of its peripheral devices in response to--.
- Claim 18, line 13, “sound signals.” has been changed to—sound signals, wherein two-way communication between a remote computer and said radio module utilize said digital data signals.--.

The examiner is now in agreement with applicant's arguments regarding the reasons for allowance.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
